ABOUT US

Remember the first time a story made you forget to breathe? That's what we do here at Stock Stop.

We are the daydreamers who never grew up, the kids who doodled epics in math class, now armed with cameras and keyboards instead of crayons. For over 20 years, we've been turning "what if" into "holy cow, look at that!"

WHAT DO WE DO?

In a world drowning in content, we are not here to add to the noise. We are here to make the silence after a perfect ending. To craft those moments that make you text your friend at 2 AM saying, "You gotta see this."

WHY ARE WE IN SAUDI ARABIA?

Here in Saudi Arabia, we are not just making shows. We are bottling lightning, capturing the spirit of a nation on the move, and serving it up to the world with a side of "bet you've never seen this before."

DOCUMENTARIES

THAT DON'T PUT YOU TO SLEEP

WORLDWIDE

We turn real life into "can't believe it's not fiction." Our docs are like that friend who always has the best stories at parties, but with better lighting and a killer soundtrack.

WHERE WORDS FALL SHORT

SAUDI ARABIA

We are capturing Saudi magic here, folks! Our lens reveals a kingdom where ancient wonders and futuristic dreams share a cup of qahwa. From mysterious deserts to skylines that touch the stars, we are painting a picture of Saudi Arabia so vivid, you'll swear you can smell the oud through your screen.

MUSIC VIDEOS

THAT MAKE YOU FORGET HOW TO BLINK

WORLDWIDE

We don't just sync audio and video; we make them fall in love.
Our music videos are what happens when your favorite song has a love child with your wildest dreams.

SOMETIMES YOU HAVE TO SEE IT TO BELIEVE IT

ANIME

THAT YOUR NON-ANIME FRIENDS WILL LOVE

ANIME WORK

We are bridging cultures faster than you can say "Naruto run." Our anime is where Saudi heart meets Japanese art, creating worlds where camels and kaiju can coexist (hey, there's an idea).

2D & 3D MAGIC

Watch your brand dance through dimensions in our mind-bending promos. We don't just promote; we hypnotize. It's where 2D springs to life, 3D defies physics, and anime adds that secret sauce of cool. Selling dreams, not just products.

THE FACES BEHIND THE MAGIC

Our Secret Sauce (Spoiler: It's Not Actually Secret)

WHAT HAPPENS BEHIND THE SCENES

WHY US?

(BESIDES OUR CHARMING MODESTY)

- We've got one foot in Saudi soil and one in global waters. It's a weird stance, but it works for us.
- We don't think outside the box. We forget the box exists, then build a rocket ship instead.
- Our tech is so cutting edge, it makes lightsabers look like butter knives.
- We are collaborative to a fault. Your vision plus our crazy equals pure magic.

WHO TRUSTS US?

We are not ones to name-drop, but... actually, who are we kidding? We totally are. These amazing brands didn't just hire us; they trusted us. They came for our expertise, stayed for our dad jokes, and keep coming back because, well, have you seen our work? It speaks louder than we ever could (and trust us, we can get pretty loud).

THE FINE PRINT (THAT WE ACTUALLY WANT YOU TO READ)

Even creative powerhouses need to dot their i's and cross their t's. Here's proof that we are as legit as our ideas are wild.

Company Registration: 13148408

Certified purveyors of visual magic since 2021.

VAT Registration: 430258718

Because even daydreams are taxable (we checked)

These numbers might not be as exciting as our latest anime crossover but they're our golden tickets to the world of legit business. They're like our superhero ID cards, minus the cool holographic effects (we're working on that for next year's registration)

We're writing to you about your application to register for VAT. We can confirm that you have been registered with effect from 01 October 2022.

Your VAT registration number is 430 2587 18.

Your effective date of registration is backdated. This means that you must account for and pay any tax due from the date you first became liable to be registered. It is not just from the date you notified us on your application for registration or when you received your VAT certificate.

If you're late telling us about your liability to register for VAT or if you delay in charging VAT, you must still pay arrears of VAT.

You must start keeping records and account for VAT from the date when you were required to register, even if you have not received your VAT registration number and certificate. But you must not show VAT on any invoices you issue to your customers until you have your VAT registration number.

You can find out more about this at www.gov.uk/vat-registration

A Certificate of Registration showing full registration details will be available to view on your Business Tax Account shortly.

If the application included an enquiry about Economic Operator Registration and Identification (EORI) number, we'll send more information about this separately.

What to do next
Now that you're registered for VAT you may find it useful to check out our VAT information. For general information about VAT, go to www.gov.uk/topic/business-tax/vat For guidance on record-keeping, go to www.gov.uk/vat-record-keeping

By law, you must send your VAT Returns to us online or by compatible accounting software and make any payments due to us electronically. To find out about completing and submitting returns, go to www.gov.uk/vat-returns

For more details about payments, go to www.gov.uk/pay-vat

If your agent will be completing and submitting VAT Returns to us on your behalf, they will have to create an agent services account before they do this. For more details, go to www.gov.uk/guidance/get-an-hmrc-agent-services-account

If you use a tax adviser, agent or someone else to do your accounts and this person is not the individual who is authorised to submit VAT Returns for you, but you're happy for them to speak to us on your behalf on VAT matters, you must authorise them to do so. For more details about this, go to www.gov.uk/appoint-tax-agent
